Watermill Express® Provides water for International Valley Health Institute Colonia Health Fair

Brighton, Colo. – May 30, 2008 – Watermill Express, the nation's largest drive-up vendor of pure drinking water, teamed up with Texas A&M Health Science Health Center to hold a monthly colonia health fair in Progresso, Texas.

Watermill Express donated 20 gallons of chilled water to the colonia health fair. "It's excellent to see the local Valley communities come together and use local resources to aid those that are in need while helping to promote humanity," said Eloy Cuaves, local Watermill Express promotions manager. The donated water serves as a valuable asset, as people living in colonias have limited, if any access to potable water.

The International Valley Health Institute is designed to promote and educate a healthy lifestyle for people living in rural colonias in the Rio Grande Valley. This program helps provide people in the colonias access to health care and doctor visits that they otherwise would be unable to afford, or have access to.

About Watermill Express:

Watermill Express is the nation's largest provider of drive-up, pure drinking water. Founded 24 years ago in Brighton, Colorado, the company serves over 100,000 customers daily in the existing 1,200 corporate and franchised locations. Customers supply their own containers and purchase one, three or five gallons of water for an average price of 35¢ per gallon. This is a savings of nearly 95% when compared to a typical 20 oz. bottle of water selling off-the-shelf at $1.00 per bottle.

Watermill Express is an environmentally friendly alternative to pre-packaged water. By promoting reusable containers, the company has prevented the waste of an estimated 500 million disposable water bottles.

As the innovator of the drive-up pure drinking water concept, Watermill Express is the first in the nation to utilize a daily 29-step quality control checklist, surpassing even the most rigorous state inspection requirements. The company has operations in nine states and is currently offering franchise opportunities in ten additional states.
